Charles-Toson, Caril-County, July 7, 1772. consequence of several Barrels of Fish being stolen at different Times, since the Middle of May last, from the Subscriber's Fishery near Charles-Town, as well as from fundry other Persons near the same Place, and having received Intelligence of a Couple of small Schooners cruifing in Elk River, whose Manner of trading was suspicious, I procured a Couple of Vessels to go in Search of them, who were fo fortunate as to overtake them. The People belonging to the Schooners seeing themselves pur-fued, and being conscious of guilt, forsook their Vessels, and made their Escape to Shore. There were found on Board several Barrels of Herrings and Shad, some of them the very Fish stolen from me, and some belonging to others, who have since made their Property appear; there was also on Board a Quantity of Seine Rope, Tobacco, Ship Blocks, and sundry other small Things, which I presume were stolen; the Owners, upon provi perry, and paying their proportional Part of the Expence, may have them again; and the Vessels (unless claimed by the Owners within Two Months) will be fold by publick Vendue, to defray the Expince and Damage fultained on the Occasion. EDWARD PARKER.

July 13, 1772.
